Part B: Writing Section (20 marks)

Instructions: Choose ONE of the following two writing tasks.

Option 1: Process Description

The diagram below shows the process of chocolate production from cacao tree to liquid chocolate.

Write a process description explaining how chocolate is made.

Option 2: Bad News Memo

You are the Human Resources Manager at Peanuts Entertainment Company. Due to budget constraints, the company must cancel the annual employee retreat that was scheduled for next month. All employees were looking forward to this event, and deposits have already been paid.

Write a bad news memo to all employees informing them about the cancellation.

Begin your chosen writing task below:

Option 2:

MEMORANDUM

To: All employees
From: Human Resources Team
Date: Sep 12, 2025
Subject: An Update on Our Annual Retreat

Every year, our retreat has been one of those special moments we all look forward to, it's a time away from the office, a chance to recharge, and most importantly, to connect as a team. Your energy and spirit are what Peanuts Entertainment more than just a workplace.

This makes it harder to share that, due to budget constraints, we won't be able to hold this year's retreat. We know that this is disappointing news, especially since many of you were already making plans. The good news is, all deposits will be fully refunded to you in the coming weeks.

Even though we won't be packing our bag this time, that doesn't mean we can't celebrate. Grab your teammates, plan a dinner, a movie night, or just coffee together, sometimes the best memories come from the simplest moments. We're confident that with a little more time and planning, the retreat will be back on your calendar.

Thank you for your understanding
